In the event the facility does not receive the requisite eight hours notice, credit for that booked/scheduled Private class will have been forfeited. There is a limit of two postponements per week regardless of the number of Private classes booked and scheduled. MDT does not promote regular observation of participants in class. Parents may request written evaluations of their children based upon a minimum of six hours or greater of class attendance per week, given an entire year of study (holidays excluded). It should be understood that we consider, but not limited to, ballet, modern dance, Zen Moves Tai Chi, and other type of choreography or movement based exercise program which may be offered and instructed at Masterpiece Dance Theatre, may at times demand strenuous activity on the part of any Registrant/participant and therefore, may not be suitable for all individuals. It is common practice for individual instructor(s) to demonstrate and or physically position various portions of the physical anatomy, including, but not limited to, arms, limbs, hips, and other associated parts of the body, in order to facilitate and or otherwise support the practical methodology on the part of any instructor in any discipline including but not limited to ballet, modern dance, Zen Moves Tai Chi, etc. In the event you do not wish to be physically corrected at any time during a class, please make your wishes known to the instructor immediately. We highly recommend that participants refrain from making general comparisons between the methodological differences and results of the various systems and techniques which may be instructed at MDT with other institutions and or methods thereof. It should be noted that sore muscles and a change in musculature may naturally be the result of any new and ongoing physical training regime. Parents with children 7 years of age or younger must normally be present in the facility during his/her child's lesson at the time of each of the lesson(s). Parents may elect to have a "legal guardian" and or other care giver act in their place. We consider attendance in any program/class offered by us to be a privilege and therefore attendance, aptitude, and behavior are carefully monitored throughout the term of study. Private lessons, although generally more expensive and time consuming, are generally recommended for students pursuing slower paced study, or for those who wish to pursue a more serious curriculum /program of study.
